The next Congress will be held at Le Mans in France

The 13th French Acoustics Congress and the 20th conference Vibrations, SHocks and NOise will be held from April 11 to 15, 2016 in Le Mans.

For the first time, Le Mans hosts the French Acoustics Congress.

This 13th edition will be placed on the sign of opening.

- opening on culture with a large number of cultural events around the congress,
- opening to the public with lectures for the general public and special sessions in Quinquonces theater open to the public,
- thematic opening to mechanical vibrations since Le Mans also hosts the 20th conference VISHNO,
- opening to the industry with sessions dedicated to applied research and measurement and a CFA / VISHNO exhibition we want particularly large.

All the actors of Le Mans Acoustique will make every effort to make this conference a great experience for all participants.
